General:

Verifying Continuing Education (CE) Hours:

- Renewal continuing education (CE) hours are NOT REPORTED AT THE TIME OF RENEWAL. Sufficient documentation to this effect (e.g., training records; computerized staff development printouts; official college transcripts, if utilizing college credit) should be housed with the Staff Development Officer (SDO) at your current place of employment. You should also keep a personal copy of your CE records.
- If you are unsure who your program's designated SDO is, please contact the DMH Division of PLACE for assistance. (NOTE: If you change employment during a renewal cycle, it is your responsibility to provide your current SDO a copy of any training records from your previous place of employment that are needed to fulfill your renewal continuing education requirement.)
- A minimum of 40 continuing education (CE) hours accrued between January 1, 2016, and December 29, 2017, is required to renew your credential. If you did not obtain your DMH Licensed Administrator (LA) license until after the beginning of the current licensure period (January 1, 2016), you can still count appropriate CE hours obtained prior to having received your license, as long as these CE hours fall within the aforementioned time frame.
- Up to one-half of the required 40 CE hours may be obtained by presenting applicable training events. Also, appropriate graduate-level college credit from an approved educational institution will be accepted to fulfill the continuing education (CE) requirement; one three (3) semester hour course (or its equivalent) is considered equal to 30 continuing education (CE) hours. If unsure whether a particular conference/workshop etc., will count towards your CE renewal requirement, please contact the Division of PLACE.
- At the conclusion of the Renewal Season, the DMH Division of PLACE will conduct an audit of randomly-selected renewed individuals to determine compliance with the Continuing Education (CE) renewal requirement. If audited, you (in conjunction with your SDO) will be required to produce documentation to validate your completion of the renewal CE requirement. Your signature on the Renewal Application Form denotes your understanding of this requirement.

Verifying Employment:

- You only need to submit the Renewal Verification of Employment Form with your renewal packet IF your employment has changed. If your place of employment has changed AND you have not already updated your employment information with the DMH Division of PLACE, then you need to include a completed Renewal Verification of Employment Form in your renewal packet. Otherwise, you do not need to submit this form. (A change in "place of employment" refers to a change in your overall employer (agency/organization) NOT your specific job title.)
