

We pay attention to our blood pressure, our cholesterol, our heart rates, and our weight.

We work to stay as healthy as possible and to change those things we know aren't healthy.

We should put the same focus on our mental health.

