

CELEBRATING Mississippians with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

Jerry lives in Oxford, MS at one of the North Mississippi Regional Center's community homes. He has worked at the Oxford Lafayette Recycling Center for 15 years. Jerry works very hard at sorting out cans, glass, plastic bottles and papers to be recycled. People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities have the ability and the right to work and contribute significantly to the workforce.

