

CELEBRATING Mississippians with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

Buying your own home is a part of the American Dream. Perry is a person with an Intellectual Disability who obtained a loan and purchased his home with funds earned in Boswell Regional Center's Supported Employment Program.

People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities have goals and desires and the ability to enjoy life wherever they choose.

