Evidence-Based Practices in Family Psychoeducation (REL-BHC-0-EBPFP)

This course is an introduction of the Evidence-Based Practices series designed to teach you the principles and practices that research suggests are most effective in the implementation of a family psychoeducation. There is ample evidence that the inclusion of families in treatment planning and recovery management achieves the best outcomes.

Credit Hours: 1.5

Effective Workplace Writing (REL-ALL-0-PROFW)

Nearly every job today requires you to write. Whether you're composing emails, memos, meeting notes, letters, proposals, or reports, writing well matters. Clear, concise writing helps workplace communication and saves everybody time. In this course, you'll learn best practices that apply to all forms of professional writing. You'll learn how to organize information, clearly state your purpose, and avoid common errors.

Credit Hours: .25

Best Practices in Trauma Specific Treatment - REL-HHS-0-BPTST

This course offers you the unique perspective of examining how specific behavioral disorders, such as substance use disorders, eating disorders, depressive disorders, and anxiety disorders, are impacted by trauma.
